The College of Choice Task Force is presenting its recommendation on Thursday; Nov. 11 and will bring a recommendation to the President’s Council. The MESA Program sponsored a balloon launch workshop, which is now part of a Saturday academy, Engineering Alive. Another event, Lego Robotics, will be co-sponsored with GUSD and Mt. Madonna High School. Sherrean acknowledged MESA Director, Dr. Abigail Joseph. The EOPS and CalWORKS department is planning a Christmas Celebration on Dec. 16, 4-6 p.m. in the Student Center. Sherrean thanked Rachel Perez for an outstanding job in promoting the non credit course program. The first course, Workplace Fitness, was presented to the Curriculum Committee; Tai Chi and the Seniors Program will be the next courses submitted. Casino Night is Nov. 12; on Nov. 16 a presentation on Title IX, in conjunction with Gilroy Unified School District, will be made to the American Association of University Women in SS 214. The Athletic Department is conducting a student interest survey at the local high schools to find out the feasibility of women’s volleyball and other sports. A Hispanic Serving Institutions Assisting Communities (HSIAC) Conference is scheduled for Dec. 2-4 and representatives will be visiting Gavilan College. The Cosmetology Scholarship Fundraiser is Nov. 20, 7:30 p.m. at the Elks Lodge in Gilroy.

   Joe Keeler reported that the second planning meeting for the District’s renovation projects is scheduled for next week with Kitchell and Sugimura representatives. The District Technology Committee met several times and is working on hardware and software standards. The Enterprise Resource Project subcommittee is working to put together an integrated computer system, a part of bond proceeds, approximately $3 million. The roofs of the four portables at the Policy Academy need to be replaced and this will be paid from capital project funds. The College Budget Committee and Board Budget Subcommittee will be meeting the first week of December.

   College President
   Steve reported that the College has been moving quickly on the 16 week calendar and the College of Choice Task Force information will be ready by Thursday. Recommendations will be presented to the Board in December.
