2012 Woman of the Year
Loritta Bonfante Johnson

Loritta is a whirlwind of energy. Her love for children and the community of Morgan Hill is evident in all she does. Education is just one of her passions. She is a great supporter of teachers in our community having set up the charter for the Morgan Hill Federation of Teachers. She was also honored with the 2004 Teacher of the Year award from Morgan Hill Unified School District for outstanding service spanning 40 years of teaching. She has a great devotion to the arts, having volunteered many years in various capacities with South Valley Civic Theater. Loritta is an amazing example of tireless devotion to the many organizations and causes that she supports. It is with great pleasure that we recognize Loritta Bonfante Johnson as 2012's Woman of the Year.

The year is a celebration of Mario Pancucci's 2022 Man of the Year award. In his acceptance speech, Mario touches upon the importance of balance between community involvement and personal life. He mentions the need for community leaders to be approachable and accessible. Mario also highlights the need for innovative thinking and the importance of collaboration between different organizations. The award is a recognition of Mario's contributions to the community, particularly in the areas of education and economic development.
Dave and his crew at D.R. Domenichini Construction can always be counted on to participate and volunteer for most of the many events that Morgan Hill produces. Dave shows outstanding characteristics namely, integrity, responsibility, commitment and engagement. Dave and his business have been involved in Leadership Morgan Hill, Morgan Hill Historical Society, Taste of Morgan Hill Car Show, Volunteer for Habitat for Humanity, and has participated at the Morgan Hill Chambers Business Expo, not to mention installing bricks around the Morgan Hill Historical House Garden. D.R. Domenichini Construction is an asset to this community and we are proud to have them as our Business of the Year 2012.
