2. Work effectively in a team, having developed collaboration and teamwork skills through class exercises, assignments and performances.
3. Articulate the differences in theatrical styles and modes of creation. Students participate in both the organic creative process (in which the students participate in the creation of the performance or play) and the most traditional approaches to theatre and performance using an established or already created text.

4. Discuss and critique theatrical performances, articulating the playwright's view and director's interpretation of the text. Students can evaluate the various technical elements of the production (costume, sets, lights, sounds), to determine whether they support or detract from the production and text.
5. Demonstrate practical knowledge regarding responsibilities of the different technical and creative jobs related to theatre and theatre production.
6. Master fundamental concepts and vocabulary relating to acting through class exercises and public performance.

CONTENT, STUDENT PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES, OUT-OF-CLASS ASSIGNMENTS

Curriculum Approval Date: 03/14/2016

10-15 hours: Continued development in daily physical warm-ups to further increase confidence, poise and non verbal expression for the performing arts. Strength, conditioning and flexibility exercises will increase in difficulty. At this level (C), Students are expected to enhance each movement and work on continued performance techniques within each exercise.

SPO: With the use of music, students will demonstrate their ability to move in and across space, with increased strength, flexibility and coordination. More advanced movement dynamics will be explored.

Out of Class Assignments: Journal, Dance/Movement projects, partner work, group work, and mini-activities/performances.

15-20 Hours: Exploration at the high intermediate to advanced level for the following dance and movement genres. This section will increase in technical difficulty, speed, and exploration of movement. Assignments will be longer in length.

1. Ballet technique
2. Modern/Contemporary dance
3. Jazz/Musical Theatre (with use of a prop like hat, chair, etc.)
4. Social Dance/Ballroom
5. Improvisation
6. Pantomime
7. Character movement exploration
8. Yoga/breath work

Focus will be on increased coordination, flexibility, agility, strengthening, endurance, control, confidence, poise, creativity and grace in each area. Approximately 2.5-3 hours will be covered in each area, with various exercises and in class mini-projects and activities. At this level, student projects and activities will increase in technical difficulty and length (duration).

SPO: The student will be able to apply high intermediate to advanced dance and movement vocabulary of varying styles, including positions, steps, turns, jumps and poses and combinations. .

Out of Class Assignments: Journal, Dance/Movement projects, partner work, group work, and performance.

4 Hours: Midterm performance. Length of performance will be longer for Theatre 11C students.

SPO: Students will be able to demonstrate the skills learned from the various styles of dance/movement learned at the Midterm point of the semester. In class time will be allotted for creation, development, discussion, feedback and rehearsals.

Out of Class Assignment: Each student will choose/perform a movement/theatre/dance piece. They will be responsible for development/choreography of movement as well as presentation to the class. Costuming and sets/props may be used and developed as well.

SPO: Perform/Presentation/Midterm/Discussion.

Out of Class Assignment: Journal, Choreograph, Practice and Present. Costume and "set" performance with or without music.

15 Hours: Lecture, journaling discussion, high intermediate to advanced level presentation and performance, advanced choreography and movement skills. Students will learn a variety of ways to manipulate movement through individual and group choreography, improvisation sessions, pantomime and assigned period movements.

SPO: The students will demonstrate their choreography skills through small group performances and partner projects/presentations at a high intermediate to advanced level. Projects/presentations will be open to creative ideas and insights based on what has been covered. Each student will present to the class on stage weekly.

Out of Class Assignments: Journal/Essay, Choreograph, and mini projects

4 Hours: The student will organize and arrange a dance/movement working assignment of their choice to present and teach to the class, which will include leadership and director responsibilities.

SPO: Create and Prepare a Dance/Movement exercise as it relates to Theatre. Teaching assistant and director responsibilities included.

Out of Class Assignment: Journal/Paper, Research, Project/Presentation, Evaluation of peers.

2 Hours: Based upon the Semester Production, time will be allotted towards whatever the production is working on in terms of Movement/Dance (i.e. Square Dance, Native American Dance, Waltz, Musical Theatre, etc.) Typically, many students are in the production so need to learn and perfect a new Dance/Movement skill based on the production.

SPO: Learn and perfect needed skill for current production.

Out of Class Assignment: Practice new skills learned. Perform.

4 Hours: Students will attend a professional, live Theatre Arts Performance and analyze all movement/dance that is within the production. In class discussion will be included after the performance.

SPO: Analyze Dance and Movement on stage in a professional theatrical production.

Out of Class: Attend 2 hour Production. Type Essay Paper on Movement/Dance analysis.

6 Hours: Prepare/Rehearse for final. High intermediate to advance dance techniques included. The student will present and perform a final piece including any dance form of their choice, which may also include acting, pantomime, improvisation, musical theatre, etc. This may be a solo performance or a group piece. 6 hours is given for the final preparation as many students will be in several performances and will need the time to prepare/rehearse/complete this final assignment in class. Students are in charge of all aspects of the project, including costumes, music (if any), sets/props (if any), script (if any), character development and dance/movement. Theatre 11C students' final presentation should include more advanced movement/dance.

SPO: Students will be able to compose a movement and theatre performance utilizing the skills learned throughout the semester.
