Section 2: A clerical person will be provided by the college for the senate.
ARTICLE II: DUTIES OF FACULTY SENATE OFFICERS

Section 1: The duties of the Academic Senate president shall be to:
1.1 Preside at all meetings convened by the senate.
1.2 Consult collegially with the Board of Trustees, President’s Council and other appropriate forums concerning the views of the faculty on any relevant matters when directed to do so by the senate.
1.3 Sit with the Board of Trustees at the Board’s invitation. If such invitation is not forthcoming, the senate president or a representative shall attend Board meetings.
1.4 Represent the Academic Senate on the President’s Council.
1.5 Vote upon motions brought before the Academic Senate bodies when his/her vote will change the result.
1.6 To aid the president of the Academic Senate in the performance of her/his duties, s/he shall be granted two-fifths (2/5) assigned time, adequate equipment and college services, and office space.

Section 2: The duties of the Academic Senate Vice-President shall be to:
2.1 Serve as the presiding officer at senate meetings in the absence of the President and assist the President in the performance of his/her duties.
2.2 Be responsible for compiling and disseminating appropriate senate information to the faculty.
2.3 Be responsible for senate generated faculty programs.
2.4 Be responsible to other senate needs.
2.5 Serve on the President’s Council as a representative of the senate for the Fall semester.

Section 3: The duties of the Academic Senate Secretary shall be to:
3.1 Be responsible for recording, publishing, and distributing the minutes of all senate generated meetings.
3.2 Be responsible for the correspondence of the senate.

Section 4: The duties of the Academic Senate Past President shall be to:
4.1 Serve as the presiding officer at senate meetings in the absence of the President or the Vice-President.
4.2 Serve on the President’s Council as a representative of the senate for the Spring semester.
4.3 Serve as a resource to the senate.
ARTICLE III: ELECTION PROCEDURES

Section 1: The Senate President shall set the dates of the elections in keeping with the provisions of this Constitution and By-laws.
1.1 Departments as listed in the Constitution (Article III, Section 4.1) shall elect their allocated senator(s).
1.2 Faculty members belong to the department in which s/he teaches the majority contact hours. If the contact hours are split evenly, the faculty member will join the department of those in question with the fewest members.
1.3 Department Chairs will be responsible for conducting the department elections.
1.4 If a department fails to elect a senator, that position will immediately become an at-large seat on the senate and it must be filled within two weeks following the At-large election process.
1.5 The at-large candidate and the part-time candidate with the most votes shall be elected.
1.6 Any necessary run-off elections shall be held within two weeks following the election.
1.7 The Election Committee shall count the ballots and post the results.
1.8 If, for any reason, elections cannot be held at the time or in the manner specified, they shall be held as soon as possible thereafter and in a manner deemed appropriate by the Academic Senate.

Section 2: Two weeks prior to the election period, the president of the senate shall appoint a three person election committee who shall conduct the At-large and Part-time elections according to the following:
2.1 The election committee shall notify all faculty in writing or by email of the election at least seven teaching days before the voting is to begin. Faculty members who are interested in being candidates will notify the election committee in writing or by e-mail at least two teaching days prior to the day voting is to begin.
2.2 The election committee shall prepare a ballot listing alphabetically the names of every faculty member who is willing and eligible to run for election.
2.3 The election committee shall conduct the election on the days established by the President of the senate.
2.4 In the event of a tie, a run-off shall be held.
2.5 The election committee shall notify all elected candidates in writing or by email of their election.
ARTICLE IV: VACANCIES AND RECALLS

Section 1: Senate vacancies shall be filled in the following manner:
1.1 If a department senatorial seat becomes vacant, the appropriate department shall elect a new senator within two weeks following the declaration of a vacancy.
1.2 If the At-large senate seat becomes vacant, the Senate President shall appoint a replacement within two weeks.
1.3 If, for any reason, the part-time senator cannot serve, then the alternate shall take his/her place. The alternate is that candidate who had the second most votes in the previous part-time election. If the alternate cannot serve, By-law Article IV, Section 1.2 shall be implemented.

Section 2: If the senate presidency is vacated, the senate shall elect a new president by secret ballot at its next meeting.
ARTICLE V: RESIGNATIONS AND REMOVALS FROM OFFICE

Section 1: Senate resignations must be submitted in writing.

Section 2: A senator shall be removed from office on written petition of two-thirds or more of the faculty members s/he represents. The resulting vacancy shall be dealt with according to the provisions of By-law Article V, Sections 1.1, 1.2 and 1.3.

Section 3: A two-thirds majority of the Academic Senate may recommend replacement of any senator who misses an excessive number of senate meetings or who fails to meet minimum senate standards of participation. Such replacement may be initiated by any senator at any regularly scheduled senate meeting. Notification of the removal shall be made in writing to the appropriate electing body by the senate president.

Section 4: If the electing body does not replace the absent senator within the time frame outlined in this document, the Senate President may replace the person with another qualified faculty member.
ARTICLE VI: COMMITTEES

Section 1: Standing and ad hoc committees shall be established as the need arises and with the approval of the senate.

Section 2: Any member of the faculty of Gavilan College shall be eligible for appointment to membership on committees, and all committee appointments shall be made by the President of the senate with the approval of the senate and in accordance with the GCFA contract.

Section 3: Committee chairpersons shall be appointed by the President of the senate and these chairs will normally be members of the senate. Chairpersons of standing committees shall serve as liaisons between the committee and the senate and shall make regular committee reports to the senate.

Section 4: All committee actions shall be submitted to the senate for evaluation followed by acceptance, return to the committee for reconsideration, or other appropriate action prior to going to the next higher level and/or the Board of Trustees.
ARTICLE VII: EMERGENCY

If circumstances requiring senate action should arise which are not provided for in the constitution and by-laws, the senate may take any necessary action by two-thirds vote of the senate.
ARTICLE VIII: ADOPTION AND AMENDMENTS

Section 1: These by-laws shall be adopted or amended when approved by a majority of the votes cast by the faculty at a special meeting called for that purpose.

Section 2: Proposed amendments shall be distributed to the faculty at least seven days prior to the faculty vote.

Section 3: Written or e-mailed proxies shall be accepted.
