Be a part of Santa Clara County’s housing solution

County of Santa Clara House Sharing Program

What is House Sharing?
House Sharing is when two or more unrelated people share a home. This could be a homeowner renting out his/her vacant bedroom(s), or two or more people renting a home together. Each resident typically has his or her own bedroom, but shares the home’s kitchen, laundry and living areas (bathrooms may be shared, depending on the property).

No two house sharing situations are alike; each is tailored to the needs and desires of the people involved.

How Does it Work?
To be qualified for the House Sharing Program, all potential House Providers and Seekers are given background checks, personality profiles and preference checklists to ensure matches are safe, mindful, relevant and mutually rewarding.

To arrange for an interview or more information on the program, visit the House Sharing website at www.catholiccharitiessc.org/house-sharing and complete the inquiry form.

Benefits of House Sharing
House Sharing is based on a national model and is an alternative way for people to meet their housing needs that provides numerous benefits to homeowners and renters alike.

The program strives to create a housing partnership between members of the community such as, seniors, persons on a fixed income, veterans, working individuals, transitional youth and students.
