

Eng260 Fall 2017 (Sloan)

Focus on infographics

Home

Find Library

Resources

Tools for Making

Infographics

Creating an

Annotated

Bibliography

Sample Infographics

Student Infographics

Gilroy

Student Infographics

Morgan Hill

Cite Sources

Suggestions for beginning your research

- Begin by making a list of synonyms for "happiness" that might show up in research.
- Try a search in One Search using just the term "happiness" (without quotes). Look in the SUBJECT list under source titles for othe synonyms for "happiness."
- Check the LIBRARY CATALOG and E-BOOKS for books about happiness.
Scan chapters for useful information.
- Try searching OneSearch.
- Add a second idea to your search to focus and narrow it.
Example: | happiness employment |
- Try substituting the words you find in the SUBJECT list under the source for the words you started with.
- Try an advanced search. Locate some SUBJECT terms, and try changing one of your terms to a subject.