

BP 3100 Organizational Structure

Reference:

Education Code 72400

The President of the College shall establish organizational charts that delineate the lines of responsibility and fix the general duties of employees within the District.

Organizational charts are to be updated no less than annually and will be included in the College's Final Budget each year.