ENGLISH

ENGL 1A Composition

Transferable: CSU, UC; CSU-GE:A2, IGETC:1A; GAV-GE:A2; CAN:ENGL2, ENGL SEQ A

This is a writing course which emphasizes expository writing, argumentative writing, and critical reading of expository prose. It is meant to train students in clear thinking and reasoned support of ideas. Students will be given the opportunity to read models of good expository and argumentative prose and learn the techniques of good writing. These include choosing appropriate subjects, developing restricted, unified, and precise theses and presenting supporting evidence in a logical, lucid, and effective manner. To achieve this end, students write no fewer than six essays and read at least five works, two of which are book length. PREREQUISITE: English 250 and English 260 or English 250 and SSCI 270A or English 250 and SSCI 270B with a grade of 'C' or better or satisfactory score on the English placement examination.

Choose a THEME for your English class:

Find the number, by the course section number, that corresponds to a theme below.

- ① Explore American consumerism and wild alternatives.
- ② Explore the great American classics.
- ③ Explore how literature can both forge new entry points and maintain existing boundaries between individuals and communities. Focus on images of race, ethnicity, gender and sexuality in classic plays, American poetry and modern fiction.
- ④ Explore the great literature of the human condition, challenging you to respond to literary art, science fiction, music, tragedy and the joy of life and living.
- ⑤ Explore the exciting realm of science and discover who we are, how we got here, and learn about the scientists and explorers who got us here while learning to write with panache, flair and accuracy.
- ⑥ Learn to think, to think courageously, to think intelligently and to think for yourself through challenging the pseudoscientific, the paranormal, the make-believe world of nutty beliefs and scams.
- ⑦ Investigate urgent social issues through contemporary literature.
- ⑧ Take a different look at the wars we all think we know, through the literature and personal accounts of writers such as John Steinbeck, Eve Ensler and Lousi DeBernais.
- ⑨ Investigate environmental issues, particularly those connected to what we eat and where we live.
- ⑩ First Year Experience: Explore the issues of peace and conflict through reading and writing.
- ⑪ Puente: Develop writing skills through an emphasis on Chicano/Latino literature.
- ⑫ Develop expository writing skills in response to issues of war and the experiences of soldiers during combat and after they return home.
- ⑬ Develop expository writing skills in response to literary works from a rich diversity of cultures.
- ⑭ Develop expository writing skills in response to American literary works about "madness" by analyzing memoirs, fiction, poems, and film.

The Puente Project is a two-semester program that combines three components: writing, counseling and mentoring to support students to transfer to four-year universities and colleges. The Guidance 1 course focuses on self assessment and career development. The English 1A course focuses on Mexican American/Latino literature. The program also includes a student leadership conference, university visits and mentor/student socials. The program is open to all eligible students. For more information, call Celia Marquez, Puente Co-Coordinator at 408-848-4807.

Required: Complete a program application with the Puente Counselor prior to registration.

1st Year Experience is a program in place in many schools across the country. These programs are in response to much research supporting smaller schools, interdisciplinary studies, and community building. So what is FYE? At Gavilan, this program links fundamental courses together. By studying and working together with your classmates and instructors, you will develop a stronger network of support. Students who enroll in FYE often report higher GPA, increased involvement in school, more friends, greater ability to meet goals, and stronger critical thinking, reading, and writing abilities.

Mark your calendars! This semester we are also offering two Friday First Year Seminars from 1-3:30 February 20 and March 27.

The following classes are part of a First Year Experience learning community. You must enroll in both courses.

Is this your first year at Gavilan? Looking for a community of people like you? Then this learning community program is specially designed for you. The first year of college can be challenging for many students. By studying and working together with your classmates and instructors, in this program you'll develop a strong network of support to help you succeed. You'll improve your reading and writing skills and also explore options for majors, transferring, and careers. Building a strong foundation in your first year will put you on the road to success throughout your college experience.

The Program: Students will take reading and writing together because these skills are needed to succeed in college classes.

The following classes are part of a First Year Experience learning community. You must enroll in both courses.

A critical survey of history through the arts of pre-Columbian natives of North, Central and South America. The course will cover major societies and events from the appearance of major civilizations through the initial colonization efforts of European nations. Due to the distinct history of the Americas, this course uses the arts - architecture, sculpture, ceramics and painting, among others - of ancient societies as a primary source material. This course has the option of a letter grade or pass/no pass. This course is also listed as ART 21. ADVISORY: Eligible for English 250.
