Women's Studies:

Gavilan College is seeking someone with expertise in Feminist/Gender/Sexuality Studies to teach an exciting Intro to Women's Studies class to a great group of Social Justice Studies majors. The course will begin August 26, meet twice a week, and end in December 2019. The right candidate has a strong interdisciplinary background in Feminist/Gender/Sexuality studies, and would like to help students do hands-on community work to enrich their understanding of gender, sexuality, and feminism in our own communities.

Master's in women's studies OR the equivalent OR see Interdisciplinary Studies.

This position requires development and review of curriculum, as well as assessment of student learning.

HOW TO APPLY

Please note: all positions are all on campus assignments; there are no distance education (on-line) teaching assignments available. If you are interested in this adjunct (part-time) position and meet the minimum qualifications, please submit the following items directly through the CCC Registry Website at cccregistry.org:

- Apply at cccregistry.org
- CCC Registry online application (required)
- Cover letter indicating why you are interested in the position (required)
- Current resume (required)
