Vision/Narrative

The Social Sciences department promotes transformative education through personal, academic, and civic engagement. The department takes a holistic approach, offering courses and experiences to enhance personal development, and preparing students to be agents of positive change. Social Science students ask critical questions, develop research skills, and communicate effectively. The department promotes clarity of thought, global citizenship, interdisciplinary thinking, and ethical humanity.

Social science faculty model civic engagement and lifelong learning through their practices, community activities, and academic research.

Feedback from Supervisor / Dean
Program Objective #1896
Social Science
Instruction

Strategy and Goal(s):

Strategy #1: Optimize enrollment, course offerings, and services to reflect community needs and growth.
Goal #3: Increase course and program offerings, as funding allows with a particular emphasis on Transfer Model Curriculum (AA/AS-Ts).

IEC Program Review:

No: The last program review was in 2010-11. At that time, ADTs had yet to be approved by the Chancellor's Office.

Progress:

Closed: The department intends to develop these new degrees based on student success data and counselor feedback. The department has identified faculty members who are willing to lend their expertise to research and develop new curriculum and degree programs.
RESUBMITTED: See Academic Year 2017-18 Program Plan

Activity 1: Hire Dr. Marilyn Chap and Jean Oler to research and develop the Social Work ADT curriculum and degree program. This work includes travel to colleges and universities in our region to research comparable CCC and transfer programs.

Program Objective 2: Promote and improve teaching and learning for populations with special needs.

Strategy and Goal(s):

Strategy #2: Improve student services and enhance curriculum and programs in order to help students meet their educational, career, and personal goals.
Goal #4: Evaluate student support services to identify successful strategies and remediate gaps that may hinder student success in accordance with instructional improvement goals.

IEC Program Review:

Yes, this Objective is based from the last IEC Program Review.

Progress:

Closed: Campus-wide collaboration has increased training for faculty; however, more training is needed as special needs populations, like veterans, are projected to increase significantly in the next few years. Social Science faculty continue to promote student services, such as veterans' services, the Health Faire, the Student Success Center, emergency funds, scholarships, and fresh produce distribution.
RESUBMITTED: See Academic Year 2017-18 Program Plan

Activity 1: Request professional learning opportunities to help us better understand student populations: veterans, immigrants, DRC students, EOPS students, students with mental health issues, and others.

Program Objective 6: Train and equip faculty and classified professionals to respond to emergencies at Gilroy, Hollister, Morgan Hill, and Coyote Valley sites.

Strategy and Goal(s):

Strategy #3: Improve and expand existing facilities to enhance the learning environment.
Goal #2: Use technology to improve existing classroom facility space, optimize academic success and administrative operations.

IEC Program Review:

No: The Social Science Department is concerned that the Gavilan community is not prepared for a natural or human-initiated disaster.

Progress:

No: Limited emergency training (the use of fire extinguishers) was offered years ago, and senior management has an emergency plan in place. However, faculty and classified professionals have not been properly trained or equipped for an emergency.
