Ken Wagman – He is a math instructor and is President of the Gavilan College Faculty Association. They are still in negotiations. The major concerns are part time faculty to have the ability to buy into health care. They would like to pay the part timers more. Gavilan part time employees are paid significantly less than other local community colleges. The faculty cannot put at risk that they will pay the entire burden in the future. They are asking for a formula for benefit sharing. He is available via email: kwagman@gavilan.edu

Point Person: Briana Stauble

She contacted the people who are in charge of putting out the trash can. They suggested not to do that because it turns into a trash can. Put a trash can next to every recycling. Blanca suggested Briana email Jeff Gopp at jgopp@gavilan.edu . We can also consider having a recycling container with a thin slot for paper only. We can reach out to the recycling company. We can make homemade ones also.
