8.0 Unfinished Business

8.1 Halloween/Dia de los Muertos, Discussion Item, Priscilla Ahmed and Iris Cueto (5 min)

There were at least 30 students that participated in the costume contest. There were a lot of other students dressed up as well. Omar will be discussing club fundraisers at the next ICC meeting. Club fundraisers did not work well. Doing the activities on the stage helped with participation. The costume contest should have an explanation beforehand.

- 8.5 CCCSSAA Conference review, Discussion Item, Dr. Blanca Arteaga, ASGC Advisor (20 min)
Blanca attended workshops based on parliamentary procedure. She received handouts and information from David DiDenti. She met with advisors from other colleges. Mary Cueto attended the workshop called what makes you tick. It explained how to communicate with people based on different personalities. Iris Cueto said that it was really informational and had a lot of great socializing. Omar Lopez took some notes from the workshops. He attended a workshop about publicity. He stated that we should also recognize students. We should also get more staff involved. Second workshop was leading with purpose. His last workshop was effective styles of communication. It was about how to communicate with other people. The highlight was don't avoid conflict, be prepared for it. David DiDenti attended a workshop called do you put your values where your mouth is. Do you live your values 24/7. They put them in different scenarios. It was probably one of the best workshops he has ever attended. He also attended leadership, ICC and SCCC workshop. The best part were the speakers.
