GAVILAN COLLEGE

If law enforcement or immigration asks about a student or staff member:

- Do not share any information.
- Ask for their name and credentials.
- If they say they're law enforcement, call campus security right away.
- Stay calm and professional.

What to Say:

“California law and college policy don’t allow me to share information or grant access. My district policy states that I need to contact campus security to assist you.”
